THURSDAY, JULY 30, 2009
10:00 A.M.

The Rushville City Board of Public Works and Safety met in special session on the above date and time at 270 West 15th Street, Rushville, Indiana. Mayor Bostic called the meeting to order at 10:00 a.m., with Merlin Herbert answering roll call. Board Member, John Mull was not present. Also present was City Attorney, Ron Wilson.

UNFINISHED BUSINESS * * * *

None.

NEW BUSINESS * * * *

Bids for Rush County Victim's Assistance renovation project. One bid was received. It was as follows:

Crane, Inc. $225,000.00

Alternate Bid $149,654.00 (This included deletions of $6,500.00, $24,022.00, $32,824.00, and $12,000.00 for various items)

The bid was taken under advisement.

Short Term Disability Brian Crabtree – Bostic explained that Park employee, Brian Crabtree is off work after having a surgical procedure. He has exhausted all of his sick/personal time and is not yet eligible for vacation. Bostic asked for short term disability for a period of 30 days or until he is released from his doctor to return to work. Herbert made a motion to approve the short term disability at the reduced rate contingent upon his years of employment for a period of 30 days or until he is released from his doctor, whichever comes first. The short term disability would begin on July 29th. Bostic seconded the motion. Motion carried.

There was no further business to come before the Board, Herbert made a motion to adjourn. Bostic seconded the motion. The meeting adjourned at 10:10 a.m.
